there are certain cities strange to the first view nearer the heart than home but it might be better to acknowledge that perhaps the word home has a wider and deeper significance than any mere geographical and family setting many men are alien in houses built from the traditions of their blood the most inaccessible and obdurate parts of the earth have always been restlessly sought by individuals driven not so much by exterior pressure as by a strange necessity to inhabit a barren copper mountain a fever coast or follow to the end of life a river lost in a savage remoteness hiding the secret of their unquenchable longing not this precisely happened to me approaching havana in the early morning nothing so tyrannical and absolute yet watching the silver greenness of cuba rising from the blue sea i had a premonition that what i saw was of peculiar importance to me i grew at once impatient and sharply intent on the resolving of a nebulous and verdant mass into the details of dense slopes slopes that showed from the sea to their crowns no break in a dark foliage the sombreness of the leaves immediately marked the land from an accustomed region of bright maplesÑthey were at once dark glossy and heavy an effect i had often tried to describe and their presence in such utter expanses filled me with pleasure it was exactly as though the smooth lustrous hills before me had been created out of an old mysterious desire to realize them in words undoubtedly their effect belonged to the sea the sky and the hour in which they were set the plane of the sea ruffled by a wind like a willful and contrarily exerted force was so blue that its color was lost in the dark intensity of tone while the veils of space were dissolved in arcs of expanding light the island seemed unusually solid and isolated as complete within itself as a flower in air and saturated with romance that was my immediate feeling about cuba taking on depth across water profounder than indigo it was latent with the emotional distinction which so signally stirred me to write at once in imagination i saw the ineffable bay of guatanago where buccaneers careened their ships and in a town of pink stucco and windows with projecting wooden grilles drank and took for figureheads the sacred images of churches painted blue on the shore under a canopy of silk a woman naked but for a twist of bishop s purple bound her hair in gold cloth from where she stood in dyed shadow a figure only less golden than the cloth she heard the hollow ring of the caulking mallets and the harsh rustle of the palms drawing rapidly nearer to what was evidently the entrance to the harbor of havana i considered the possibilities of such a story such a character she had her existence in the seventeenth century when morgan marched inland to rape camag eyÑthe daughter without doubt of a captain of the armada de barvento the windward fleet and a native woman taken in violence a shameless wench with primitive feelings enormously complicated by the heritage of spain s civilization a murderous sullen passionate jade wholly treacherous and instinct with ferine curiosity the master for her i decided must come from the court of charles the london of the cavalier parliament a gentleman in a gay foppery masking a steel eaten by a cruelty like a secret poison it would be a story bright with the flames of hell and violent as a hurricane the pages would reflect the glare of the sand scrawled with cocoanut palms and banked with mangroves and at the end the bishop s purple would be a cerecloth and the gallows chains sound in xaymaca but above everything else it would be modern in psychology and color treatment written with that realism for which the only excuse was to provide a more exact verisimilitude for romance
